IN BRIEF

Centuries old, this is a magnificent property of character & history, imagine the tales it could tell…

This isn't just a piece of history, not only are the house & grounds wonderful, you could also have a revenue straight away if you want to run gites or retreats or hobby/activity courses – plenty of accommodation, storage & space!

Currently, the house is configured as a one bedroom gites, a 3 bedroom/2 bathroom gite & a 1 bedroom owner's house but there is potential for reconfiguration to suit your needs. Not only that, you also have a separate stone building which was formerly a cottage (& perhaps could be again, subject to planning approvals), an old stone pigsty & a large, tall open-fronted barn.

The large gardens surround the house & overlook fields at the back, will you see deer grazing or maybe some wild boar meandering by or just beautiful sunsets?

Proven revenue-earning property, within easy reach of Ploërmel, the Forest of Broceliande, Lac au Duc & Josselin.
