IN BRIEF

This most impressive home, set in its own extensive grounds, within a nature reserve, represents your chance to get away from the daily grind and be master of all you survey. The park is superb with landscaped gardens, a veggie plot, woodland and delightful river frontage. There is also a building which could be converted to a stable and pasture. The house has been extensively refurbished to the very highest standards to offer luxury accommodation including sauna and plunge pool. This really is an oasis of calm, a grown up retreat which could equally be a permanent home with plenty of room for a home office or creative studio. Well located for Dinan, Rennes and St Malo.
