IN BRIEF

This 19th-century mansion has been tastefully remodeled into a charming hotel, located in the heart of an authentic Perigordian market town. Sitting on the river banks of the Vézère, near the famous Unesco World Heritage prehistoric site that attracts thousands of visitors annually; this delightful 3 star hotel offers the best of both worlds, walking distance to all the town's amenities but tucked away enough to be a peaceful getaway. Beloved for its quirky and eclectic rooms, this wonderful hotel has garnered some excellent reviews nationally and internationally over the years. Boasting 14 bedrooms, a large 2 bedroom apartment and a separate owners house. Large and well maintained garden with a small stone built gazebo at the end of the grounds which can be further developed as a wedding "chapel". Large swimming pool that is privately screened off and a large fish pond from the natural water source that is present on...
