IN BRIEF

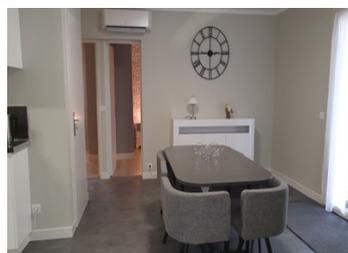

Set in the centre of Perigord Noir, just minutes from Sarlat and a few more from the river with its castles and tourist attractions. This is the perfect spot to realise a highly profitable tourist destination with a versatile group of buildings in a peaceful and beautiful location. A huge amount of work has gone in to the design and planning of this property which consists of a main house and three separate independent gites. The main house is currently split in to two self contained rental apartments but could easily be reconfigured in to owners accommodation. The three gites are towards the other end of the property and have been orientated to give privacy and a peaceful environment in the wooded grounds. The gites have been professionally finished with no expense spared; air conditioning, new fittings and fixtures and modern decoration. A significant income opportunity is on offer here, without...
