IN BRIEF

This beautiful property, nestled among the hills of North Charente and within walking distance of the charming village of Alloue, has undergone a complete and meticulous renovation to meet high standards. The main house, boasting three comfortable and modern bedrooms, offers the luxury of private parking and a personal terrace that overlooks the beautiful grounds and the countryside beyond. Featuring double-glazed windows, efficient electric heating, and a wood-burning stove, the house is thoughtfully separated from the gites to ensure tranquility and peace for the owners. The two gites, successfully rented in 2023, are spacious and contemporary. Each gite provides access to the stunning pool area with panoramic country views. The gites collectively have the capacity to accommodate up to 12 people. Completing the property is a vast barn, and an additional outbuilding adjacent to the pool area that holds the potential for conversion into a third gite, sujet to permission.
