DESCRIPTION

Traditional Gers house made of stones, earthen bricks and raw earthen bricks, heavy renovation done (roof, septic tank, double-glazed wooden windows), finishing works to be done.

Custom made wood heating system in the kitchen. Insulation elements of natural fibres (hemp) are stored on the 1st floor for installation.

Recent wooden double-glazed windows.

Original floor made of terracotta tiles.

The dependances are for renovation (barn with attic, storage room).

An old 130 sqm pigsty is to be converted into a single storey house, 100 meters away from the main house.

The property is situated on a dominant position with land exposed South for a luxuriant vegetation (palm trees, orange tree).

The position enables to produce vegetables, garden products or any other green growing.

Perfectly adapted to horses, sheeps, goats.

An orchard with various fruit trees is in front of the main house.

A well can be used for watering and the former barn tank is used for water storage.

Recent septic tank.

Open views on the Pyrenees mountains.

No direct neighbours.
