DESCRIPTION

Recently renovated in a tasteful manner, the main property has double glazing and electric heaters as well as two large wood burners. The ground floor is wheelchair friendly and the upstairs has a pretty attic bedroom and storage space. With a beautiful day room, the interior and exterior come together via double doors leading out onto a patio and the peaceful gardens.

Next door, with its own private entrance, you will find the guest house and gardens. This has an insert wood burner and electric heaters. Perfect for family and friends or to generate income by renting it out.

These properties are in a very practical location. They have the benefits of a quiet hamlet whilst being within walking distance of many amenities including a great restaurant and a fun bar/restaurant (both establishments sell bread!). Reffannes has easy access to commuter routes for Parthenay, Saint Maixent L'école, Niort and Poitiers, improving rental potential and making travel simple if this was to become your holiday home. It also has a primary school and specially developed park area and is only a few kilometres from a beautiful plan d'eau with a man-made beach. Perfect for summer days without travelling to the beach.

Located between Parthenay and Saint Maixent L'école with their larger shops and restaurants, 40km from the beautiful city of Niort and 45km from Poitiers with its tourist attractions, TGV train station and international airport.

The main house and gardens total 1073m².
