DESCRIPTION

The charming, authentic hamlet of Villafrou is a 17th century village in Courchevel, 3 valleys. It has a fascinating history and a quaint village church and watermill next to the stream running alongside. This really is a picture postcard village in both summer and winter and forest trails allow for walks in all directions or snowshoe walks in winter.

Just 5 minutes in the car brings you to the village of le Praz which has 3 ski lifts reaching different areas of the Courchevel and allowing easy access to the whole of the 3 valleys ski area.

Included in the sale is a 2 bedroomed original village house, the old watermill and a plot of land joining the two buildings.

The house comprises -

- Ground floor living space with an open fire and a kitchen including hob, dishwasher and fridge.
- First floor bedroom with WC and sink
- Second floor bedroom with south facing balcony, plus bathroom
- Small attic space
- Cellar
- Parcel of land

-The separate, beautiful, authentic water mill is non habitable but can be used as storage and is the chance to own a little bit of history

Courchevel is part of the 3 valleys, the largest ski area in the world. This village is indeed a special place.
