IN BRIEF

Between Camargue and Rhone Valley in the heart of a single piece of land of 47 hectares composed of vineyards, forests and woods, this magnificent building built around the 17th century, offers an exceptional 360 degree view over the Camargue, its ponds, the Pic St-Loup to the west and the Mont-Ventoux to the east. This large estate has great potential for wine tourism development, both because of the reputation of its wine, classified as AOP BIO Costières de Nîmes, which has won several gold medals in international competitions, and because of its hosting facilities (gîtes, reception and tasting room, outdoor kitchen, infinity pool, sauna), which can accommodate many visitors. The main house of 365 m2 has been restored with noble materials and will not need to be renovated. 2 flats have been renovated. 2 flats are to be renovated as well as an old house.
