IN BRIFF

An elegant and very spacious 18th century house that is now being run as a Chambres d'hotes/ B&B with eight ensuite letting rooms and private owner's accommodation. Ideally located to continue with the existing Chambres d'Hotes/ B&B business or to make a very comfortable large family home. Built in 1792 and extended around 100 years ago, it offers high ceilings, extremely light rooms and wonderful art-déco ambiance with arched doorways and flowing layout. This gem also benefits from mains drainage and mains gas heating and is ready for some new energy to revitalise its unquestionable shine. Just a couple minutes walk from the touristic centre of La Rochefoucauld with its magnificent château, bar restaurants and boutiques, it also has a large selection of doctors, schools, hardware stores and supermarkets. Angoulême, capital of the Charente, is 15 mins away on the N141 highway and offers a lovely historic old town and TGV...
