DESCRIPTION

The property complies with the Grenelle Environment 2012 standards, making it highly energy-efficient.

Rustrel is a charming village of about 750 inhabitants located in the heart of the Provence where life is very pleasant.

The bakery a stone's throw away makes excellent bread, the grocery shop sells exquisite local cheeses and charcuterie, the terraces under the large plane trees are pleasant and the community life is lively.

There is also a post office, a school, a town hall, a brocante, a bistro, an auberge, a pizzeria and several galleries.

Nature is everywhere with lavender fields, forests as far as the eye can see, mountains and the famous Colorado de Rustrel, where the ochre cliffs will amaze you on every walk or bike ride with their incredible colours.

The town of Apt with its supermarkets, colleges, cinemas and restaurants is 10 km away.

The TGV from Avignon is about 1h15 drive away and the airport from Marseille is about 1h30 drive away.
