NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Entrance is into the large well-lit kitchen with large countertops which is big enough to fit a breakfast table. Down the short hall the house has been extended to create a great entertaining space with double aspect light and doors which open out onto the patio.

This is advertised as a three bedroom house. Adjoining one of these bedrooms is another room which could be used as an office, second lounge or bedroom. There is a nice family bathroom where you would also have your utilities and a separate wc.

The barn is attached to the house and has access through to the attic which is insulated. Under the house is access to the cellar where you find the central heating boiler. Again you can see this has been well insulated keeping the house comfortable.

The house is surrounded by a large garden with a well and there is a good size paddock next to the garden. While this is not large enough for a horse there is plenty of space for a swimming pool, large vegetable garden and chickens!

Set on the edge of Saint-Sulpice-les-Feuilles which has a school, supermarket, cafes, bakery and local village market— this house has something for everyone. Only 5 minutes to the A20 motorway, 15 minutes to La Souterraine with train connections to Paris and 40 minutes to Limoges.
