NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The villa possesses an extraordinary degree of expansion/addition/construction flexibility, which is quite rare given that Côte d'Azur building/expansion permits are becoming increasingly difficult to obtain.

The top floor is currently used as the living space, with living room (49m<sup>2</sup>) dining room / kitchen (24m<sup>2</sup>), 3 bedrooms (17m<sup>2</sup>, 14m<sup>2</sup> and 14m<sup>2</sup>) and 2 bathrooms (as well as 48 m<sup>2</sup> of terrace). The open plan main living area is equipped with breakaway sliding doors on two sides and opens on to the vast terrace, maximising natural light and blurring the distinction between "inside" and "outside". There is also a separate laundry room (10 m<sup>2</sup>) behind the villa with its own independent entrance.

The whole of the bottom floor is effectively the garage which can accommodate 6 or possibly even 7 cars depending on the configuration. The villa was designed and constructed from the beginning for the garage to be transformed into liveable surface area and is already equipped with 12 windows, an office, a toilet, a shower, radiators, as well as 65 m<sup>2</sup> of terrace (also with sea views). This garage level affords the new owner the ultimate flexibility because it can be...
