LOCAL TAXES

Taxe foncière: 1339 EUR

The main storey of the house boasts a beautiful flooring combination. On one side, there is oak parquet, adding a touch of elegance and warmth. On the other side, the floor has been crafted using stones sourced from the former abbey of de la Châtelière, which was destroyed during the revolution, and which graced the house with its name. This unique flooring choice adds a historical and distinctive element to the property. Upstairs, the flooring consists of new, solid oak parquet, further enhancing the timeless charm of the house.
