NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Introducing a charming hamlet property nestled in the serene countryside of rural Mayenne, just a stone's throw away from the picturesque Medieval market town of Lassay - 2 minutes by car - offers all the local amenities you could need. This spacious 3-bedroom home presents an ideal opportunity for those seeking a residence in France or embarking on an enticing gite project. It is in perfectly liveable condition but would benefit from a little redcoration.

With its classic early-century - belle époque - appearance adorned with brick-lined windows, all of which are double glazed (apart from 2 at the back). Upon entering, you are welcomed into a spacious sejour/entrance room boasting a cozy wood burner, spanning an impressive 20m2, and would be great used as a dinning room. Adjacent, a convenient downstairs WC.

To the right, the main living room area, spanning over 22m2, provides ample space for relaxing and recreation. The other side of the séjour, we find the adjoining kitchen, which is fitted and fully functional, although it could do with an upgrade, it is spacious enough at 16m2.

There is a large buanderie or laundry room which houses the oil-fueled heating boiler. The room needs some finishing touches, but the room certainly offers additional practicality. Finally, there is the workshop/wood storage space with a concrete floor and granite stone walls, which houses the water boiler and even a well.

Returning through to the entrance room, there is the original oak half-turn staircase. Ascending up to...
