DESCRIPTION

In a gated residence in Paris south of the 17th arrondissement, the "Villa des Ternes" is made up of 5 private avenues. Former location of the vast park of the Château des Ternes in the town of Neuilly, then a public garden and an amusement park with the first Russian Mountains. In 1822, this land became the property of Monsieur de Verzy who decided to build a villa there. This house will be the home of illustrious figures of the Arts and the press. Then other remarkable constructions were built with architecture from the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th century.

This beautiful and charming house get one of the must large private garden in Paris. This is an English-style garden with century-old trees, deciduous trees, flowering shrubs, and a large lawn in the center surrounded by a sandy pathway, edged with evergreen flowers such as snowdrops, daffodils and tulips. It's a large outdoor space that you can enjoy all year round as the seasons go by, equipped with a wooden garden shed and a mowing robot.
