NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nyons, the olive capital of the Drôme Provençale, is an ideal base for exploring the region's charming markets, ancient streets and cultural attractions.

The atypical layout of the house makes it authentic and special. The floors are divided into staggered levels linked by a beautiful central stairwell.

floor: an Ground entrance hall, a dining room/kitchenette with balcony, as well as access to the garage and two large cellars in the basement.

First floor: a living room with fireplace and shower room and a south-facing bedroom with utility room, with views of the Roman bridge, the dyke and the river.

The second floor comprises two bedrooms, a shower room with toilet and a large passageway that could be used to extend the south-facing bedroom.

On the third floor: a generous, light-filled room of around 18 m2, with a mezzanine, giving access to a south-facing terrace of over 20 m2.

Electric heating and reversible air conditioning in two of the four bedrooms.

The shell of this town house is in very good condition and offers excellent renovation potential to fit out and finish this property to your liking.

This house is well worth investing in to retain its authenticity and potential.

Numerous hiking and mountain bike routes are accessible from the house. Heritage, well-being, outdoor sports and Provencal life all come together here.
