IN BRIEF

This three bedroom property is perfectly placed on the edge of Vimoutiers to enjoy access to all the commerce and amenities the town has to offer, yet profits from beautiful valley views, and the quietness of the countryside. No work required as ready to move in permanently or as a lock up and leave holiday home. The owners have maintained this house and yard/garden to a high standard to transfer to the new buyers. There is a double garage that has internal access to the house, and also a period animal shelter that has also been maintained to keep its charm and character. An established kitchen garden at the rear of the house, and rainwater tank, makes this house ready to go. The town of Vimoutiers offers everything you need for enjoying the best of the French lifestyle - bakery, cafes, bars, restaurants, market days in the centre of...

DESCRIPTION

Entering the property through the front door, you have an entrance/hallway space (5m²). There is a built in cupboard you can use as storage or for jackets and shoes. This allows you access to the open plan dining room (18m²) / living room (9m²), that has two double french doors that open towards the terrace. At the right of the entrance you have the kitchen (11m²) that also has a double french doors that lead out to the terrace, where you can have your breakfast outside or in. Double glazing throughout.

Following the hallway, you are taken to the two bedrooms with wood effect linoleum flooring (9m², 10m²). There is also a toilet, and a separate bathroom (3m²) with basin, and Italian shower.

Heading back through the kitchen, there is access to a further annexe of the house that has a second entrance space (4m²) with two large double doors out to the east facing terrace. There is a cellar/laundry space (10m²) and the third bedroom (master bedroom 13m²) that comes with its own ensuite (4m²) of toilet, basin, and shower recess. From the second entrance way is the internal staircase that leads directly to the double garage (26m²).

The outside terrace space is 25m² to enjoy and take in the beautiful panoramic valley views. The established kitchen garden at the rear of the back yard, and a period animal box used as a garden shed (20m²) that has been...
