NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This property is beautifully presented throughout. Upon entering you will find yourself in the dining room 15m² adorned with a log burner. To the right is the well-equipped kitchen 13m² and a separate utility room 5m². Downstairs, to the left of the dining room features a spacious living room 23m², warmed by another log burner with double doors opening out to the front of the property.

Ascending to the second floor, you'll discover three generously sized bedrooms, each boasting ample natural light, along with a splendid bathroom with a WC, sink and Shower.

On the topmost floor, there's a versatile bedroom currently utilised as an office, illuminated by Velux windows that bathe the space in natural light. This makes a great work space or equally would make a fantastic master bedroom, or even a games room. The floor space measures 44m².

Across the road an enclosed garden awaits complete with a garden shed for storing wood and an adorable summer house, offering plenty of outdoor enjoyment. It has a number of mature trees including Maple, Cherry, Apple, Plum, Pear, Olive and Hazlenut with views of a 13th Century Church.

The village it self, La Chapelle Faucher is a rural commune located in the north of the Dordogne. The beautiful town of Brantome is only 10kms away with the market town of Thiviers 18 km away and 29 km away is the popular town of Périgueux.
