DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of the Luberon, the picturesque village of Cabrières d'Avignon enchants visitors with its authentic charm and provincial tranquility. Nestled among green hills and vineyards, this village offers a unique experience, blending the calm of the countryside with rich cultural and natural heritage.

In the village itself, you'll find a bakery, a butcher's shop-caterer, and a general grocery store to meet your daily needs, as well as restaurants and a bistro. Just a 5-minute drive away in Coustellet, you'll discover a variety of additional services, including two supermarkets, several bakeries, caterers, a pharmacy, a mini organic market, restaurants, paint shops, decoration stores, and much more.

Although Cabrières village is small, it also hosts a post office, a primary school, a college, and a town hall, providing residents with a well-established community life.

Nature lovers will find their paradise in the surroundings of Cabrières d'Avignon, with a network of hiking trails and cycling paths winding through the magnificent landscapes of the Luberon Regional Nature Park. From tranquil walks along cherry tree-lined paths to more ambitious hikes to the surrounding peaks, there's something for every level and taste.

Don't miss the local markets, where you can discover a profusion of fresh regional products, from fruits and vegetables to local cheeses and wines. The weekly market in Coustellet is particularly renowned for its lively atmosphere and quality products.

For those coming from afar, access to Cabrières d'Avignon is convenient. The Avignon TGV station is just a 30-minute drive away,...
