DESCRIPTION

This pretty house is located on the village road between Troubat and Mauléon Barousse.

You access the house which is located behind tall secured gates, that give way to a courtyard which offers an off road parking space. The wooden front door opens to a cosy lounge diner of 22m². To your left you have a bathroom & WC of 4.5m² which also has a washing machine plumbing point & electricity. Next to this you have the downstairs bedroom of 13.3m²

Going up the wooden staircase to the first floor you have two generous sized bedrooms of 14m² and 17m² both of which have double glazed patio doors opening onto the terrace of 10.5m which runs the entire width of the house.

Outside in the courtyard you have a grey oak framed BBQ area; storage area that comes with power plus out house for storage of garden equipment. A gate then leads through to the extensive garden where you can benefit by relaxing on your own private banks of the river Ourse.

In Troubat you have 'Grande falaise de Troubat' which is a rockclimbers dream and the village of Sost is a few kilometres further up which famed for its cheeses. You are also within a few more kilometres of the famed Port de Balès climb, the excruciating long route taken by the Tour de France.

The Val d'Aran in Spain with its lovely villages, tapas restaurants, bars and shops is just over 40 minutes away so you have...
