DESCRIPTION

The famous walled city of Avignon, famous for the Palais de Papes, home to seven popes during the 14th century, is now one of the most visited cities in France. It offers a huge diversity of shops, cafés and restaurants and also acts as a gateway to discovering the fantastic landscapes of Provence and the Côtes du Rhone wine region. During the month of July, the city also hosts the largest theatre and performing arts festival in France, when the streets literally buzz with atmosphere. Avignon has a direct TGV link to Paris in just over 2 and a half hours and is only an hour from the Mediterranean beaches of the Camargue. Marseille international airport is less than an hour away.

This charming apartment lies in the centre of this historic city. The accommodation, on the third floor of a 4 story 18th century residence comprises the following:

- An entrance way with a door leading to a separate WC
- A nicely appointed fitted kitchen with breakfast bar and dining area
- A large lounge with beautiful tall period window and exposed stone walls
- A double bedroom away from the street with stone walls and ensuite shower room.
