IN BRIEF

A village house with accommodation over three floors and an elevated terrace offering wonderful views of the village and countryside around. Conveniently, a short walk to the bastide village of Duravel and a 5 minute drive to Puy l'Evêque with multiple restaurants and amenities but at the end of the road, open countryside with stunning views, walks, cycle routes, vineyards, and fishing in the Lot River. This house is a great investment opportunity offering a slower pace of French village life. In addition to the property there are two parcels of land in Soturac, which is a village 10 minute away, totaling 995M2. This would be perfect for those keen to have their own allotment..
