DESCRIPTION

The architectural design reveals itself within a park and a new landscape that respects the area's identity: a free, Mediterranean landscape, a landscape of flowering meadows and olive groves on the terraced hillside. And a breathtaking view of the Mediterranean. A panorama on the Estérel massif and on the Lérins islands.

With a selection of apartments from studios to 4 bedrooms apartments from € 391,000 to € 2,180,000, this prestigious new development of 59 spacious and elegant apartments is located in a quiet and secure area, offering a privileged living environment. Especially an intimate concept, preserving the tranquility of its inhabitants, but endowed with a slender architectural character, with clean lines, authenticity and a high level of quality.

On this magnificent site, a true panoramic point of view on the bay of Cannes, in the green setting of an authentic preserved olive grove, this residential area is exclusive, composed of a few small contemporary buildings of two levels on the ground floor, with large balconies and terraces, laid out in a wooded park and furnished with walks and a swimming pool.

Less than four kilometers from the legendary Croisette, the beaches and the old port, Le Cannet offers an incomparable panorama of the intense blue of the Mediterranean, the Lérins Islands and the first red rocks of the Estérel. Nestled in the heart of seven hills covered with thousand-year-old olive trees, the village-like town was famous from the 19th century for the beauty of its landscapes and...
