IN BRIEF

One of the beauties of this place is the fact that your nearest neighbour, a farmer, is perhaps 6-700m away. The only people you are ever likely to see, apart from the ones you invite, are the postman and the farmer from next door as he passes by with a cheery wave at the bottom of your drive on his way to work! The garden is surrounded by trees. There is a massive barn and many outbuildings available for whatever uses you want - perhaps a gite or two? There is also a large cottage which requires re-roofing and refurbishing. Perhaps you might turn this into a self-sufficient smallholding with income from gites as well?

DESCRIPTION

The current owners have enjoyed the gentle seclusion of this delightful house for many years but now find the level of maintenance too much for them with other distractions demanding more and more of their attention in the UK. There is plenty of room within the grounds for a wide variety of activities and leisure – let your imagination run riot!

The main house has large living spaces much suited to entertaining with a large salon open to the equally large dining area. There are four good sized bedrooms, two at ground floor and all with their own facilities. The grand suite at first floor has a substantial roof terrace overlooking the garden. There is also a generous terrace outside the salon for afternoons in deep contemplation – with a glass of the local wine, of course!

No description can really convey the beauty and tranquility of this spot and we strongly recommend you view this wonderful opportunity to appreciate the glorious environment here.
