IN BRIEF

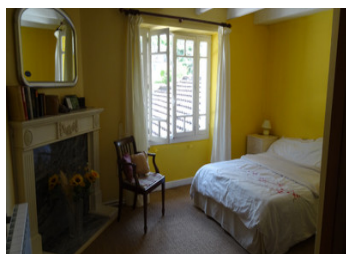

This Lovely property is nestled in a stunning limestone valley on the CELE river with it's own Chateau and surrounded by unique scenery. Situated less than 10 km from St. Cirq-Lapopie, the property has a restaurant that attracts tourists throughout the summer as it is in a village that is home to world-famous pre-historic caves (The 'Grottes du Pêch-Merle'), as well as a horse-riding centre, an adventure centre for rock-climbing, kayaking, canyoning, and caving as well as cave diving. This picturesque village is also on the Santiago de Compostella pilgrimage route, and is in a natural park region (Parc Naturel des Causses du Quercy) recognised for it's natural beauty.
