NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This property is situated in an historic building with original features including an exposed stone wall in the bar and window balustrades. It has been decorated using a bold two-tone colour scheme and could be easily re-painted for a different look. Furniture is not included. Bar/restaurant and apartment previously rented for 800 EUR pcm.

The property is situated just a few steps away from the 12th century church and priory of St Gaultier. Links to the Vatican have been a feature of St Gaultier's history, providing protection against destruction in the 100 Years War with the English. It's probably the only French town to be paid by the papacy in gold florins. Walk down the short hill opposite and you arrive at the riverbank for the Creuse, perfect for an evening stroll. The popular Friday market is a two-minute walk away. The town sits in the Parc de la Brenne, known for its' 3000+ lakes and great activities ranging from hiking and horse-riding to canoeing, art workshops and live bands performing in Parc villages. Transport links are excellent with the A20 and TGV 10 minutes away. Airports at Limoges, Tours and Poitiers.
