DESCRIPTION

This harmonious and human-sized ensemble consists of 2 buildings on 3 floors and 2 spacious houses, nestled in a natural setting. The contemporary style, both bright and refined, is expressed with elegance. The facades are punctuated by the choice of different shades of plaster: tinted with white, brown or shade. The whole is sublimated by the gradation of transparency of the guardrails and the aluminum joinery. The play of volumes and hooks animates the architectural style for a resolutely modern result. Finally, pride of place is given to green spaces to affirm, here and there, the intimate character of this new residence.
