IN BRIEF

This cosy detached chalet is situated at the end of a small dead-end. Very close to the free ski bus stop, it permits quick and easy access to the pistes and Morzine village centre. It also offers good rental potential thanks to its quiet, yet close to centre and slopes, position. The rental income could also be increased by the possibility of creating a further living/bedroom space within its large basement.

DESCRIPTION

More precisely this pleasant Ski Chalet is laid out as follows:

The main entrance hall is located on the upper garden level and leads to a spacious lounge/dining room with a nice wood-burning fireplace, opening onto the outside terrace and garden, a large fully equipped kitchen room with a dining area, a large double bedroom, and a bathroom.

On the first floor, there are 2 further spacious bedrooms with triple beds and a family bathroom with wc,

The lower level, which can be accessed via an internal staircase, is a large basement that offers great potential for conversion/renovation.

This currently consists of a spacious laundry and storage area, a boiler room, and a garage that can accommodate 2 to 3 vehicles.

A very good opportunity for a well-located chalet at a reasonable price.
