IN BRIEF

This house has it all, in a peaceful natural setting at the foot of the Andaines national forest, it offers the charm of old stone houses with exposed beams and the modernity allowed by a recent renovation. Only 2km from Passais, it has no vis-à-vis or close neighbor with a land giving 360 views on the surrounding wooded and hilly countryside. Its rooms are spacious and bright with a large bedroom on the ground floor comprising a private shower room. The roof is new, the septic tank does not require any work and the electricity has been updated. 2km from Passais: bakery, restaurant, pharmacy, hairdresser 15km from Domfront for all shops, services and amenities 28 km from St Hilaire du Harcoüet and its famous market

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

You access the property via a small no through road which leads to a nice graveled area allowing to park several vehicles.

Each room on the ground floor gives access to the garden, offering a beautiful entry of light and air circulation for the warm summers.

The ground floor :

An equipped kitchen with spacious dining room (33m²)

A living room with a recently installed wood burner (26m²)

Continuing on from the living room, a large bedroom (22m²) with modern shower room including a toilet and direct access to the garden.

Upstairs:

You access a mezzanine (12m²) which can serve as an office or a guest bedroom. A wide hallway with storage space then leads to a shower room with toilet. Finally, an attic bedroom (22m²) with two velux windows.

Attached to the house, a workshop of about 27m² with a 3,5m height as well as a woodshed space.

The property evolves on a plot of 1200m², it comes with a very well maintained garden and several fruit trees (cherries, apples, pears). It offers all the potential for a terrace area, barbecue and the creation of a vegetable garden if you wish. A great bonus, it does not overlook any building, only the surrounding countryside.
