IN BRIEF

A character stone house with 3 reception rooms, 3 kitchens, 5 bedrooms and 5 bathrooms set in a mature garden with a swimming pool surrounded by private terraces. Large workshop, gymnasium, cave and garage. The house is over 3 floors with private entrances to 3 different living areas, so great for an extended family. It also offers potential to further convert areas into living accommodation. Easily exploitable as three gites, a Bed and Breakfast or a restaurant with an excellent location on a link road between two larger villages, so easy to find. There is also a separate parcel of land opposite the house which offers further opportunities. Set in open countryside with stunning views, walks, cycle routes, vineyards, and fishing in the Lot River, and conveniently a short distance to the bastide village of Puy l'Evêque with multiple restaurants and amenities.
