IN BRIEF

This characterful house, from the 1920s, is located just 2 steps from the city centre, yet out of sight. Don't be fooled by its location, once through the gate, the incredible garden and terraces surrounding the property offer a real oasis of greenery and calm! Full of charm and authenticity, the house will seduce you with its generous volumes, its noble and ancient materials (solid wood floors, period tiles, woodwork, fireplaces...) The property also includes a recently renovated detached house that can accommodate friends, family or why not, to consider a bed and breakfast activity or to set up your company? It is also ideal as a family home and offers numerous possibilities for development according to your project. The property is built on an enclosed plot of over 900 m².
