IN BRIEF

This delightfully secluded property was run as a successful campsite until 2015, with 25 pitches but has more than adequate room to expand, subject to local permission and given the amount of outbuildings plus unused land currently, it could be ideal for horses. It is situated in the rolling countryside with panoramic view yet just a couple of kms from the popular village of St Severin, which has a supermarket, post office, doctors, dentist, pharmacy and bars/restaurants.

DESCRIPTION

You approach the property from a small lane and take the long driveway into the courtyard.

The house is accessed across a glazed veranda (21m2), which has a log burning stove, making it usable even when it is slightly chilly. Into the large fitted kitchen (30.4m2), which is large enough for a table and chairs and also comfortable chairs in front of the original fireplace where there is another log burning stove.

From this room you can access the shower room (5.4m2) and then through to the separate WC and utility area (7.5m2). Across is the double bedroom (11.2m2).

To the right of the kitchen is the sitting room (13.5m2)and separate office /bedroom (10.5m2).

Above the living space is a large attic, accessible by outside steps.

Attached to the house on both sides are barns and outbuildings, ripe for conversion should you require further living accommodation.

Across from the house are further barns and a newer build garage.

The grounds surround the buildings and a part has been converted to a campsite with 25 generous pitches - each has a power point. It would be feasible to increase the number of pitches within the existing space but there are also extra fields currently unused.

Also on offer is a one bedroom chalet

There is a shower/toilet block , behind which you find the secluded pool
