IN BRIEF

This delightful country cottage with outbuildings and a lovely garden has everything you need for your new life in France. Situated outside the hamlet of Saint-Martin-de-Landelles and a short drive to the market town of Saint-Hilaire du Harcouët, it is full of character and has been nicely renovated with some original features left intact, feature fireplace, beams, exposed stone walls. You enter into the bright country kitchen-diner with wood burner and enough room for a dining table. Off this you find a cosy living room with another wood burner. The owners have renovated the old cellar and created a nice and modern bathroom with WC and a useful laundry/utility room. This part of the house has its own entrance and a staircase leading to a nice double bedroom, so it could be used/rented as an independent apartment. Back to the living room you have another staircase leading to a two more...
