IN BRIEF

This would make an ideal lock up and leave holiday cottage or cosy permanent home. The main living area, including the bathroom and bedrooms, is situated on the ground floor, however there is also a good-sized mezzanine area – perfect for use as an office or as another bedroom. Beautifully maintained by the current owner, the house is ready to move into. It is situated in the heart of the Breton countryside with magnificent views, less than 5 minutes by car into the lovely old town of Coray, where you will find all local amenities including restaurants and bars. Major commerce, including hypermarkets, do it yourself shops and numerous restaurants and bars, can be found in the lovely old market towns of Châteauneuf du Faou and Quimper. Both towns host annual events, such as the famous Jazz Festival in Châteauneuf du Faou and the daily market in the historic centre...
