BUILDING DETAILS:

To live in BORÉALES is to choose to live in an exceptional address. The work of renowned architect Jean-Michel Wilmotte and the IKA Architects agency, its curves fascinate the eye while guaranteeing the harmonious balance of the facade. The facade feature undulating balconies that create an elegant play of light and shadow. Carefully designed, the project also stands out for its long-lasting quality materials. The natural stone, in shades close to white, gives a pure clarity to the whole. It contrasts delicately with the metallic paint on the last two floors. The large glass openings give rhythm to the composition and promise optimal luminosity to the apartments.

To enhance the light and luminous structure of BORÉALES with green, the landscapers have thought of a new way to experience the gardens. They can be visited by walking along a wooden footbridge. The colors of nature dialogue harmoniously with the clarity of the facade. The composition of the heart of the block is refined and takes up the characteristic undulations of the architecture. Composed of a rich plant palette, this landscaped gallery has 65 trees chosen...
