IN BRIEF

In a pretty village below the Cévennes, a few minutes away from the bustling riverside town of Anduze with its full range of shops. It is an hour from the sea and 30 minutes from the wonderful roman provençal city of Nimes. Airports and fast trains are within easy reach . This house was probably part of an ancient priory, perhaps housing the local farmer in the 17th or 18th century. Now fully developed and restored to a very high standard, there is nothing to do but move in. Currently a second/holiday home but also used for gite letting. The two floors can be completely independent each with two bedrooms, kitchens, living areas and separate access. Outside the grounds are easy to maintain in the provençal style and are mostly courtyards ...
