IN BRIEF

In the heart of the Périgord Pourpre - 3 km from a village and 10 km from Bergerac - you find this pretty 19th century stone farmhouse with its operational vineyards, Appellation Bergerac Rouge and Monbazillac. Its quiet location with a very nice view offers you great potential for a wine tourism project, for a gite project, co-housing and all other projects that require volumes, buildings and calm! The farmhouse consists of 3 beautiful stone buildings together forming a courtyard. One building includes an established cellar - 680 m² - with a magnificent roof construction, renovated, insulated and well equipped with a stainless steel vats. At the end a house (to renovate) of 74 m² with the possibility of creating an additional floor. A second building consists of an 82 m² house, a cellar with a bread oven and a 68 m² tower on two levels. All to renovate! Then, a barn -...
