DESCRIPTION

An absolute bargain, this cute little detached cottage ready for renovation, is situated in a quaint village with a lovely bakery across the road and basic amenities.

On the ground floor as you enter you are in the old kitchen. To the left there is a lounge and a small room behind that could be opened up into a large lounge/kitchen/dining area.

Stairs to 2 bedrooms that also could be re configured.

If you want a cheap renovation you will not find anything better. It has a bathroom with toilet, so it is habitable whilst you are renovating.

The house is approx 15 minutes drive from the larger town of Guéret (23000) where you will find large supermarkets, bars, restaurants, doctors, hospital, vets and a lot more. There is a lake for swimming, canoeing, swimming and fishing.

For an absolute bargain price this would make a fab little holiday home or even an investment property to let out.
