DESCRIPTION

exposed beams and aluminum double-glazed windows.

There is a separate staircase with access to the first floor, this could be rented out separately, access via an exterior door the modern staircase leads to a spacious landing, with space as an office and two very large bedrooms a bathroom and a w,c

The property has two stone garages with electric doors, concrete floors, and a mezzanine for storage. There is a paved area for seating and a garden table for al fresco dining. There is even a petanque court. Behind the garage is another hanger, for wood storage and a workshop.

Attached to the garage is also a very pretty stone building with an arched entrance, which again could be a small dwelling or a summer house.

The property is south-facing with a fabulous mature and manicured garden with trees and shrubs galore. To the left of the property is the vegetable plot and the orchard.

The current owner has sheep on the land to the rear and an area for wood storage.

The remainder of the land is behind the property and is partially constructible.
