IN BRIEF

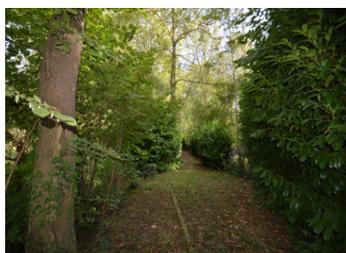

SOLD - Located in a charming village close to Lourdes, this old mill has been turned into a family house of 92m2. Surrounded by two streams of rivers with lovely mountain views and plenty of greenery in the quiet garden. It will make it a perfect home for its new owners. The main door leads into the small reception room, from which you can then enter the living room and a separate kitchen, with a storage space behind. Upstairs you will find three bedroom: one of them with the staircase to the attic, the other one with the spacious bathroom, and the last one with a shower. Outside there is a nice terrace with a small garden area overlooking the river stream. On the right side of the house, a very spacious hangar leads to additional caves that after some renovations could work perfectly as a garage or as...
