NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Two bedroom town house with terrace, new roof in 2018, mains drains, convertible attic and wonderful views. You just need to design the interior to your taste. A holiday house in the historic quarter of a vibrant rejuvenating village just waiting to be unpacked. Hold a piece of history in your hands in the old quarter of Chateaupsac.

Ground Floor

A modern kitchen has been created in the foyer area and hosts an old fireplace (needs a wood burner and lining).

From the kitchen you go through the central dining room which enjoys double aspect light and into the lounge area. This in turn opens out onto the terrace area which enjoys beautiful views out over the valley which has been created by the Gartempe River.

Beneath the terrace is the enclosed garage which is perfect for parking the car or storing the toys and tools.

First Floor

The stairs bring you to a landing and two large bedrooms with exposed wooden floors and each enjoying great natural daylight. It would be your decision to keep the authenticity of the rich wood floors or opt to modernise.

The family bathroom is spacious with WC and bath, and again features a large window capturing the views and natural daylight.

Attic

The third level attic is a space yet to be explored but you can see the details of the new roof evident here which gives assurance of no expensive bills here in the future! The space is crying out for a Master Bedroom with...
