DESCRIPTION

Detached Partly converted barn building, with several outbuildings, cave, cellar, workshop.

The property has 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, the habitable space is insulated and is just crying out to be lived in. Electric and water are connected and it benefits to being connected to mains drains.

Large garden.land of approx 1600m² with off road private parking driveway. Partly converted/renovated in need of some works

Very large footprint, very interesting project, there are lots of possibilities and somewhere to live whilst renovating the rest of the buildings.

There is no fixed heating, however the sellers will leave a couple of woodburners.

There are also stables, so you could keep a couple of small pony's or donkeys, chickens etc.

The property is quirky and needs to be seen to appreciate what could be done to achieve a huge living area and perhaps a little smallholding.

Situated on very quiet road in a village with basic amenities.
