DESCRIPTION

Although the total surface of this area is just under 100m² the feeling is much more spacious.

A much sought after single storey house (the boiler is in the basement) the 2 large doubles, modern bathroom and open plan living area is a modern twist on this traditional home.

The house, despite the energy rating has been exceptionally well insulated both in the ceiling and underfloor with double glazing throughout.

Extensive barn areas, a small cottage to renovate and within easy distance of local village, (1 km) this is a perfect year round home or holiday rental.

The large plot across the lane of 3000m² has outline planning for a dwelling. Subject to approval, this makes this a very important quality for this property.
