DESCRIPTION

Set off the country road and down a secluded driveway there are three buildings here that have already been converted for accommodation. The four attached barns are in great condition and ideal for further projects with the correct planning permissions.

Main house

The ground floor of the main house sets the mood for this place. It was created for entertaining and for families. There is a large lounge featuring a stunning mantel piece underneath which sits a wood burner.

The other side of the hallway is given over to the kitchen and dining area with space for a large dining table. Double ovens and a gas cook range. There is plenty of storage for all the kitchen gadgets and supplies.

Beneath the stairs, stone steps take you down into the vaulted wine cellar. Great space for the preserves, wine and beer.

A family bathroom and utility room complete the ground floor.

First Floor

On the next floor there are three lovely bedrooms. The master bedroom has a full ensuite bathroom with shower. One of the bedrooms joins the other and is currently used as a hobby room and office.

The attic is clean, warm and dry and displays the solid oak frame that supports the house. There is plenty clearance under the frames so this could make another two rooms or an extended master suite.
