DESCRIPTION

This magnificent villa is raised to take advantage of views over the countryside and towards the Pyrenees. It has an impressive garden at the front that is not overlooked and which leads into the fabulous open living space. This quirky property has the potential to be a beautiful family home to meet everyone's needs.

In the main house there is a stunning living/dining area that leads out to the sun drenched terrace. There are four french windows.

There is the possibility to convert the annex in to a Gite. It has its very own bathroom, toilet and living space. This part of the house has its own access.

The main villa has 4 bedrooms, these are positioned to the right as you enter the house.

There is a covered swimming pool which is in need of a new liner. It was heated by photovoltaic panels. You could leave it as an indoor pool or open it up.
