IN BRIEF

SOLD - This riverside property is located in a pretty village in the Vallée d'Aspe and comprises a main house with two gallery bedrooms (used for accommodating Bed and Breakfast guests and St-Jacques-de-Compostelle pilgrims), three holiday cottages, one of which is a 16th-century mill, a barn and 2.5 acres of land, which borders a river. ## DESCRIPTION

This delightful mill property is bursting with character and cachet, with the ancient mill itself dating back to the 1500s! Lovingly restored and renovated by the previous owners, the property and its holiday cottages are completely ready for the new owners to move into, although you might want to refresh some of the décor. The main house has a traditional gallery on the first floor, which overlooks a beautiful internal courtyard with a fountain. The mill building is set away from the main house and has a millstream running beneath it. There are two additional holiday cottages, along with an unconverted barn, which could be used for creating further rental accommodation.

Although the property is close to the centre of the village, there is no passing traffic, guaranteeing complete peace and tranquillity, with just the sound of the nearby river. Gates from the lane open into a parking area, with covered parking possible in the barn, which is located in the grounds at the end of a short track.

The main house (about 100m<sup>2</sup>) is adjoined by one of the holiday cottages, forming three sides enclosing the internal courtyard. The main house comprises a south-facing dining terrace, a kitchen and a main room with a sitting area, a dining area and an open fireplace. The internal courtyard is accessible from the main room, from where steps lead up to a charming gallery and two bedrooms, each with an en suite shower room. The bedrooms are...
