IN BRIEF

This beautifully restored 1200m2 chateau in the South West of France with 28 hectare of parkland is ideally situated in the wine regions of Madiran and Saint Mont. This eleven bedroom private residence has been tastefully restored to an extremely high standard by the current owners, who have created a perfect fusion between traditional and modern. Steeped in history, this wonderful chateau was built in 1830, it's sweeping tree lined driveway leads to the handsome front doors and welcoming entrance hall. Recent and extensive restoration work has been carried out enhancing the historical features of the property. Each area has been repurposed to enable business opportunity if required. A large independent annexe with a contemporary finish provides a flexible space for you. A heated swimming pool with decked area with palm planting affords a great position for you to relax and enjoy the stunning views of the forest, vines and countryside.
