IN BRIEF

Under Offer - A stunning property that boasts ample character and charm, as well as a guest house, providing an excellent opportunity for both personal enjoyment and rental income. The property is situated in a tranquil setting, nestled within a large garden and spacious lawns. The main house is a traditional French stone building that has been partly restored and retains its original character and features, including exposed beams. The guest house is situated within the grounds and requires finishing off. Large front garden and back garden covering over 4500 m² with a little river running through it.
