NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled within two hectares of picturesque landscape, this enchanting château boasts a timeless allure, accessible via a grand driveway flanked by weathered stone pillars. Surrounded by a lush canopy of trees and overlooking sprawling meadows, the estate exudes tranquility and grandeur.

Steeped in history, the château's origins trace back to the Middle Ages, with a majestic keep dating back to the 13th century. A graceful dwelling, reflecting the Henri II architectural style of the 19th century, now stands upon the site of the original château's stables.

Basement level: Underneath the château you will see the vaulted cellars which are a fascinating insight into ancient times.

The ground floor: This level comprises a large reception room with a Renaissance-style fireplace, leading to a further reception room with toilets and a large kitchen with many architectural features including a fireplace which dates from the Middle Ages.

1st floor: Here you will find a large bright reception room. This room has a fireplace dating from the 19th Century adorned with tiles with fleur-de-lys motifs, a splendid herringbone parquet floor and a painted coffered ceiling. From the hall, you will enter the Salon du Marquis, with a Renaissance-style fireplace, coffered ceiling and period floor tiles, that leads out onto the terrace.

2nd Floor: Here you will find the Chambre du Marquis, which includes a secondary kitchen, a large bedroom with its own Renaissance-style fireplace and bathroom, three other bedrooms and a separate bathroom.

3rd Floor: Located exclusively in the keep,...
